DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1-8, and 11 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(i). The claims should provide indentation for each element. Where a claim sets forth a plurality of elements or steps, each element or step of the claim should be separated by a line indentation. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claims 1-8, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
 - Regarding claim 1 the applicant discloses, "and areleasable locking arrangement". What is that?
 - Regarding claim 1 the applicant discloses, "the outer-sleeve (4) being rotatable forwardly to a condition wherein the first and second windows are not aligned and the locking of the plate is released to enable the plate (9) to be slid across to a condition wherein the third and fourth windows (19,20) are aligned to allow pills in a bottle to enter the inner sleeve (4), replacement of the plate (9) to its initial condition then allowing the outer sleeve (3) to be rotated back to its initial condition,". The structure of cap being claimed is not clear? Is this a method being claimed within a structure?

- Regarding claim 4 the applicant discloses, "A cap according to claim 1, wherein the plate is spring loaded (13) into the initial condition wherein part of the plate projects outwardly of the two sleeves." The structure is not clear. Maybe the word "and" should be inserted between "condition" and "wherein".

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-8, and 11 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
